

SO IMPORTANT!

1 Thessalonians 5:19-21 Quench not the Spirit. Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

Hosea 12:13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

The Scriptures are clear. We should never despise the words of a prophet. If we want to prosper and be preserved from the wrath of God, we must study and obey the instructions of the Lord's messengers.

HERE TO STAY

God has promised through the testimony of His servant, Paul, that the church would always have the gift of prophecy. (1 Corinthians 1:5-8)

The Spirit of Prophecy is a gift that is here to stay. King Jehoshaphat highlighted its importance by stating, "Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper." (2 Chronicles 20:20) During these times of conflict, pestilence, and uncertainty, we need now more than ever before to identify the Lord's messenger and heed their warnings and admonitions. When we follow a prophet's instructions, we are promised that we will prosper!

GOD'S MESSENGER

To know a real prophet of God from a false prophet of Satan, we have to follow the Biblical tests for a true prophet. They are as follows:

1. live a godly life (Matt. 7:15-20)
2. be called to service by God (Isa 6:1-10, Jere 1:5-10, Amos 7:14-15)
3. speak and write in harmony with the Bible (Isa 8:19-20)
4. predict events that will come to pass (Deut 18:20-22)
5. have visions and dreams (Num 12:6)

There are certain physical evidences of a prophet in vision. Here are some characteristics of true manifestations of the Spirit of God upon a human being:

1. initially lose physical strength (Dan 10:8)
2. may later receive supernatural strength (Dan 10:18-19)
3. not aware of earthly surroundings (Dan 10:5-8, 2 Cor 12:2-4)
4. no breath in the body yet alive (Dan 10:17)
5. able to speak (Dan 10:16)
6. eyes will be open (Num 24:4)

Chain of Truth Ministries is of the persuasion that Ellen G. White was a true prophet of God. Her written works are powerful and positively life changing when practically followed.
